

ARTWORKS

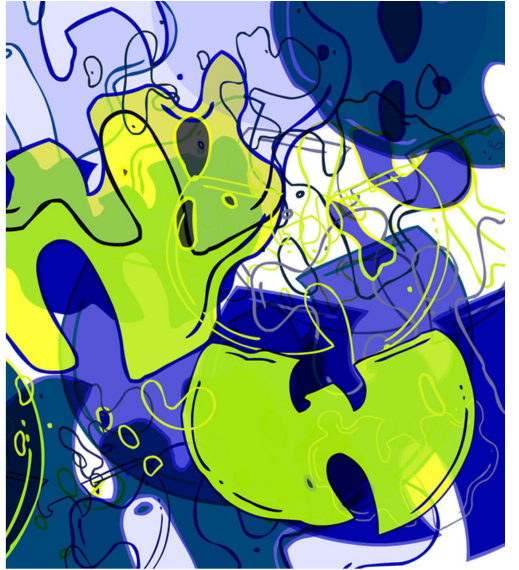

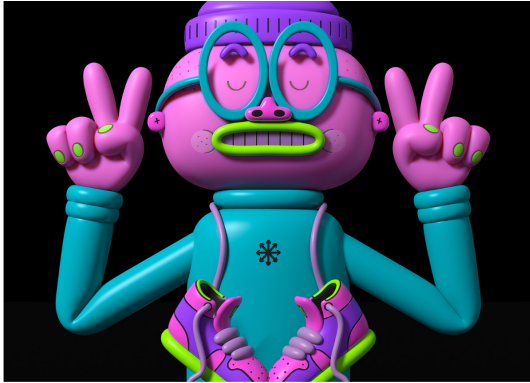

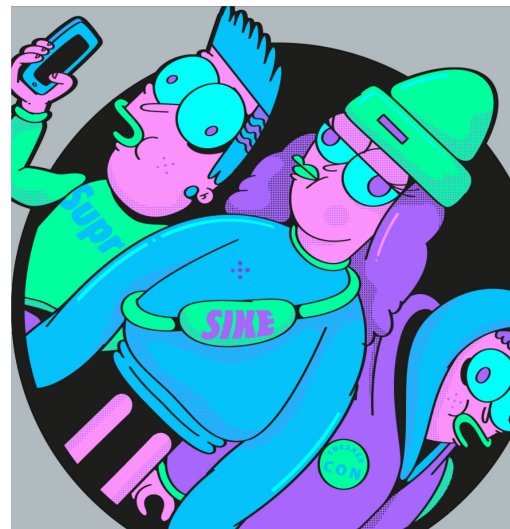

PSYCHROME is the personal brand of Ian Ball, an artist and illustrator based in Bristol, UK. He makes bold, cartoony art that pops.

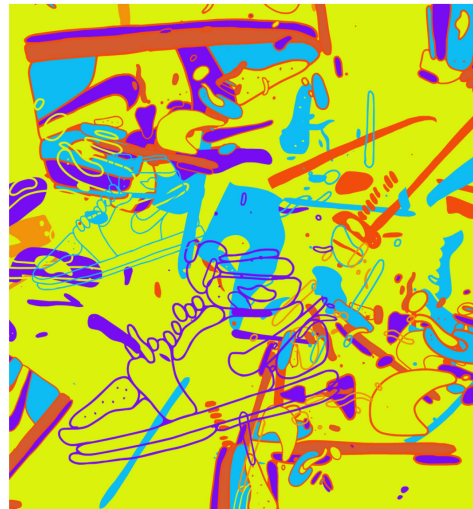

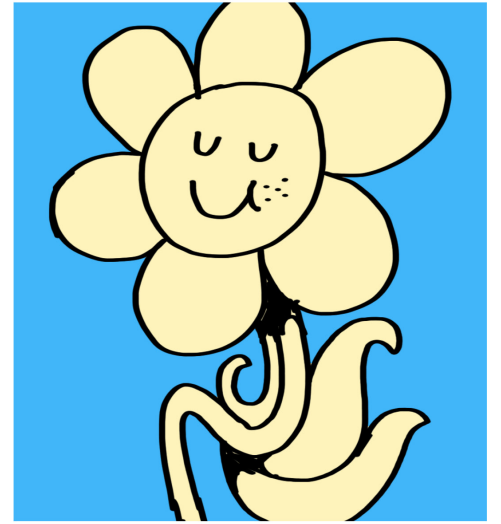

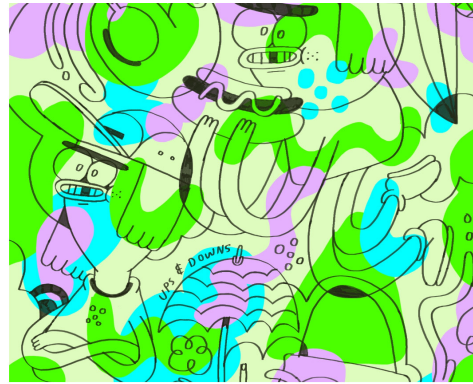

For the past 15 years he's brought colour and character to projects for Nike, Hennessy, Salomon and Sneaker Con, with work shown everywhere from TV screens to the London Design Museum and Seoul's Urban Break Art Festival.

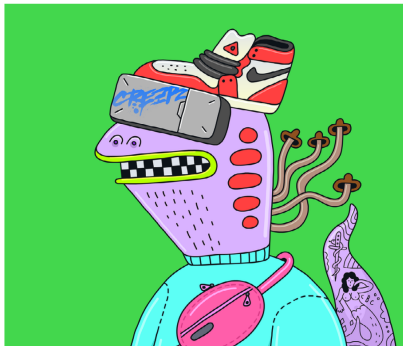

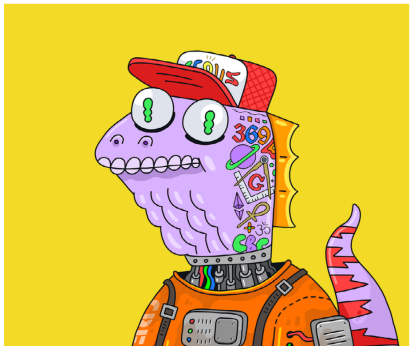

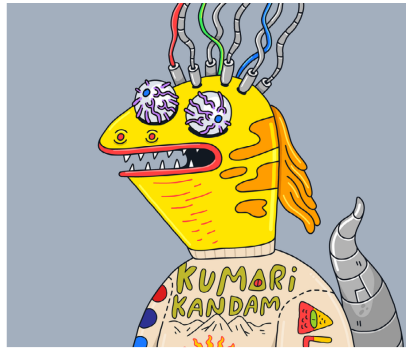

If you think his work is amazing, it's because it is.

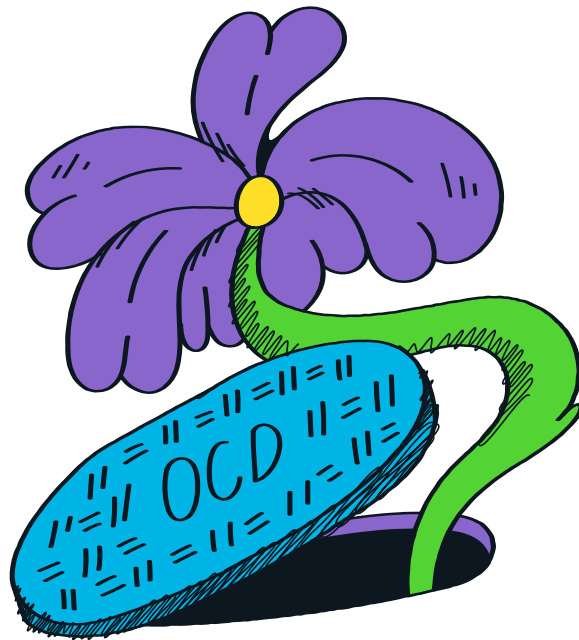

THANKS!
